REUBEN WOOD

Reuben has consistently worked as a session stylist in London, New York, Milan and Paris. Throughout his career he has assisted top fashion hair stylists such as Eugene Souleiman and Duffy and has worked across fashion weeks worldwide for the last decade.

Originally he trained in hair for Toni & Guy in London in the 90's, subsequently teaching for the company. In 2004, Reuben opened his first salon, a space in which he and his team could explore their creativity, as well as offering a constantly discerning service for their clients. Reuben enjoys all things hair, he loves creating undone Editorial looks, sexy messy hair on Campaigns, and glossy Red Carpet looks. His fun personality is infectious which means he fits seamlessly into every team. Reuben has worked with Photographers such as Gregory Harris, Andrew Woffinden and Dan Kennedy and worked on various campaigns from Moncler to Primark. His editorial includes Italian Vogue, HUF Magazine, FY Magazine and more.
